

Educational Diagnostician

---

The Heart of Texas Education Cooperative is accepting applications for the position of educational diagnostician for the 2010-2011 school year on a part-time to full-time basis.

Qualifications: Applicant must have a master's degree with educational assessment credentials from an accredited university. Applicant must possess knowledge of diagnostic procedures, educational needs of special education students, learning theories, legal requirements, and have excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

Knowledge of Special Education Manager is preferred. Applications may be obtained from www.bradyisd.org, or by calling the Co-op office at 325-597-2558. Position open until filled.