

Current Job Postings

---

Educational Diagnostician

The Heart of Texas Education Cooperative is accepting applications for the position of educational diagnostician for the 2009-10 school year. Qualifications: Applicant must have a master's degree with educational assessment credentials from an accredited university. Applicant must possess knowledge of diagnostic procedures, educational needs of special education students, learning theories, and excellent communication and interpersonal skills. Applicant must also have experience in working with students with autism and knowledge and experience in evaluating such students. Knowledge of Special Education Manager is preferred. Applications may be obtained from www.bradyisd.org, or by calling the Co-op office at 325-597-2558. Position open until filled.

Half-time Inclusion Specialist

The Heart of Texas Education Cooperative is accepting applications for a half-time Inclusion Specialist for the 2009-10 school year. This is a maximum two-year position. Duties will include working with general education and special education teachers on all Co-op campuses to enable teachers to work with students with disabilities in the general education classrooms. Applicant must possess certifications in general education as well as in special education, and have extensive experience in working in both settings. Applicant must also possess skills necessary to work with classroom teachers in a supervisory setting. Applications may be obtained at www.bradyisd.org, or by calling the Co-op office at 325-597-2558. Position open until filled.